

ENGLISH CONVERSATION CLASS
INTERMEDIATE LEVEL

12/05/2025-16/05/2025

TOPIC: Friendship

Watch this video and answer the questions:

<https://youtu.be/YmVpwXH4jhA?si=8Nqv0cNsjJB777y>

- 1. What makes Priya a special friend to the speaker?
 - A) She is very good at science
 - B) She always agrees with the speaker
 - C) She can make any situation fun and is very supportive
 - D) She gives expensive gifts

- 2. What does the speaker say about talking with Priya?
 - A) They only talk about serious topics
 - B) They talk for hours about anything
 - C) They prefer texting instead of calling
 - D) They don't talk very often

- 3. Why are teenage friendships considered special?
 - A) Teenagers are more independent
 - B) Teenagers have more free time
 - C) The brain changes and helps teens connect more deeply
 - D) Teenagers don't like spending time with family

- 4. What is the "ventral striatum" responsible for?
 - A) Helping people sleep better
 - B) Making social interactions feel rewarding
 - C) Controlling physical movement
 - D) Improving memory

- 5. What is "Theory of Mind"?
 - A) A way to improve memory
 - B) The ability to understand others' thoughts and feelings
 - C) A method for learning new languages
 - D) A part of the brain that controls movement

6. How does interpersonal synchrony show in friendships?

- A) Friends always agree on everything
- B) Friends walk and move in sync without thinking
- C) Friends wear the same clothes
- D) Friends talk at the same time

7. When do babies start to develop Theory of Mind?

- A) At birth
- B) Around 18 months
- C) At age 10
- D) In their teenage years