

ENGLISH CONVERSATION CLASS
ADVANCED
FEBRUARY WEEK N°1

Topic: How media shapes our perception of reality

Play this video and answer the following questions:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kVAztNx0rHQ>

1. According to the video, what effect do repeated stories have on our brains?
 - A. They have no measurable effect
 - B. They interact with our biology and shape how we organize information
 - C. They only affect entertainment choices
 - D. They always improve critical thinking
2. The video cites British Film Institute data about UK film roles between 2006 and 2016. What was the approximate percentage of roles played by Black British actors?
 - A. 0.5%
 - B. 5%
 - C. 15%
 - D. 64%
3. Which recurring stereotype was mentioned as an historical trope created by white storytellers?
 - A. The absent scientist
 - B. The romantic lead
 - C. The tech genius
 - D. The mummy (loyal subservient caregiver)
4. What term, coined by Alice Walker and mentioned in the video, refers to prejudice within the Black community based on skin tone?
 - A. Segregation
 - B. Colorism
 - C. Tokenism
 - D. Gentrification
5. The video suggests a question to ask when consuming media. Which of the following best matches that suggested question?
 - A. How many awards did this production win?
 - B. What was the production budget?
 - C. Whose voice is telling this story and who is it trying to represent?
 - D. Which streaming platform hosts this content?

Answer Key:

1. B
2. A
3. D
4. B
5. C