

ENGLISH CONVERSATION CLASS
INTERMEDIATE
MAY WEEK N°1

Topic: Job satisfaction and motivation

Play this video and answer the following questions:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=V2eW5jGQe8I>

- 1. What reason does the programme give for British workers scoring "really badly" on measures of work intensity?
 - A. They have too much vacation time.
 - B. They must meet more targets and deadlines.
 - C. They earn higher salaries than other countries.
 - D. They work shorter hours.
- 2. According to Emma Stewart's trial with construction workers, what change improved workers' work-life balance?
 - A. Increasing daily hours on site.
 - B. Paying workers less for the same tasks.
 - C. Shifting to a task-based (output-based) way of working.
 - D. Requiring workers to be present even when sick.
- 3. Which vocabulary word from the programme means "staying at work longer than usual or going to work when you're ill to show you work hard"?
 - A. Burnout
 - B. Deadline
 - C. Presenteeism
 - D. Win-win
- 4. In the Forbes survey mentioned, which job was voted the worst in the UK?
 - A. Bartender
 - B. Call centre worker
 - C. Traffic warden
 - D. Portable toilet cleaner
- 5. Which of the following best describes a "win-win" situation as used in the programme?
 - A. A result that is good for everyone involved.
 - B. A situation where only the employer benefits.
 - C. A workplace where people never miss deadlines.
 - D. A situation that increases presenteeism.

Answer Key:

1. B
2. C
3. C
4. B
5. A