

ENGLISH CONVERSATION CLASS
INTERMEDIATE
JUNE WEEK N°2

Topic: Personal values and priorities

Play this video and answer the following questions:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=T-IRbuy4XtA>

1. According to the speaker, what does society often say will make us happy?
 - A. Living a values-focused life
 - B. Achieving goals like a good job, money, and a big house
 - C. Appreciating small everyday moments
 - D. Spending more time with family

2. In the car-ride example, how does the goal-focused kid behave?
 - A. He enjoys looking at farms and trucks.
 - B. He plays games and notices things outside.
 - C. He keeps asking, "Are we there yet?" and feels frustrated.
 - D. He is satisfied even if the car breaks down.

3. What are some values the values-focused kid uses to enjoy the journey?
 - A. Curiosity, adventure, and having fun
 - B. Competition and speed
 - C. Winning and being first
 - D. Planning and saving money

4. When the car breaks down, how do the two kids respond differently?
 - A. Both kids are happy because they love surprises.
 - B. The goal-focused kid is disappointed; the values-focused kid still notices interesting things and feels less upset.
 - C. The values-focused kid cries; the goal-focused kid explores the area.
 - D. Both kids give up on going to Disneyland.

5. What is the main advantage of living a values-focused life, according to the video?
 - A. You will always reach every goal faster.
 - B. You avoid setting goals altogether.
 - C. You never have problems or disappointments.
 - D. You feel fulfillment during the journey and even if you don't achieve the goal.

Answer Key:

1. B
2. C
3. A
4. B
5. D