GRAN CANARIA IS

SUN

Gran Canaria is an island of striking contrasts, where volcanic landscapes, dramatic coastlines and a remarkable variety of microclimates create an exceptional natural setting.

With around 60 kilometres of beaches along the Atlantic and a mild, spring-like climate throughout the year, the island offers endless opportunities to enjoy life outdoors.

Its coastline is ideal for water sports — sailing, surfing, windsurfing, bodyboarding and diving — making the Atlantic an essential part of everyday island life.

Sun, sea and outdoor living — all year round.

Gran Canaria is often described as “a continent in miniature”, thanks to its extraordinary variety of landscapes, microclimates and ecosystems — a diversity recognised internationally, with around 43% of the island's territory included in the UNESCO Biosphere Reserve.

One island. An extraordinary world of nature and contrasts.

FUN

Gran Canaria offers much more than landscapes and sunshine. The island has a lively social scene and plenty of ways to enjoy your free time — beaches, cafés and restaurants, shopping, cultural events and nightlife.

At the heart of it is Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, a cosmopolitan Atlantic city where urban life and the beach come together. Las Canteras and Las Alcaravaneras put the ocean right in the city, while terraces and lively neighbourhoods keep the energy up all year.

The historic districts of Vegueta and Triana add another dimension: centuries of architecture alongside pedestrian streets, cafés and cultural venues.

Beach days, city nights and island life in between.
